

Great Artillery Duel Yanks Fight Into Okinawa Owns

By WILLIAM F. TYREE
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
GUAM, May 18.—(RUP)—A great artillery duel, of unprecedented fury in the Pacific war, flared along the Okinawa battle line today as American forces fought yard by yard into the three wrecked battle towns of Naha, Shuri and Yonabaru.

Tokyo reported, without allied confirmation, that a powerful American fleet steamed out of the Marianas last Sunday or Monday, presumably for new forays against the Japanese Empire.

Front dispatches indicated U.S. ground forces were battling Naha and Yonabaru, as well as in Naha, where marines expanded a narrow bridgehead across the Naha river.

BREAK INTO SHURI
The enemy reported earlier that American troops broke into Shuri, the inland center of the Japanese defense line lying midway between Naha on the west coast and Yonabaru on the east.

The Japanese artillery was massed on high ground in the rear of Naha, Shuri and Yonabaru. It was powerful enough to return the fire of one of the greatest American land, naval and aerial bombardments in history.

East of Naha, one marine and two U.S. Army units were pushing the American flag southward. The long-term objective of this drive was occupation of the southern tip of the island.

SUDBURY, Ont., May 18.—(CP)—The Progressive Conservative party believes that the rights of workers can best be protected by a system of private enterprise.

Mr. Bracken, national leader of the party, told a political rally here last night.

Mr. Bracken made the statement when a man in the audience interrupted him while he was outlining the party's labor policies before the delegates and the Ontario mining city, another stop-off point in a cross-country federal election campaign tour.

BACKS SYSTEM
"We believe that these rights can best be secured by a system of private competitive enterprise," said Mr. Bracken, who will spend today traveling to Kenora, Ont., where he will address a meeting Saturday.

"We accept the opinion expressed on this point by William Green, president of the Canadian Federation of Labor Unions," he said.

QUEBEC, May 18.—(CP)—A campaign to raise $150,000 to help build French language radio stations in the prairie provinces, was opened here last night at a dinner sponsored by the St. Jean Baptiste Society to a delegation which came here to launch the drive.

It is hoped that four stations will be built in the west as a result of the campaign, and that 500 French Canadians there already have subscribed $150,000.

Mr. Maurice G. Gravelle, a French Canadian, said that the English radio program were being broadcast from the United States, which alone remain the source of the radio faith and French language.

Life Meaningless Nazis' Labor Boss Pleads For Death Now Hitler Gone

From CP, AP and BUP Dispatches
ADVANCED BATTLE HEADQUARTERS, AEF, Germany, May 18.—(RUP)—Dr. Robert Ley, former German Labor Front leader, and once a pot-bellied, swarthy, buck-toothed, hard-drinking, profane labor boss, today asked his American captors to shoot him because "life has no more meaning for me without Hitler."

"I know that after Hitler there would be chaos," said the one-time leader of the Strength-Through-Joy movement in the Reich and satellite countries. "Life has no more meaning for me. You can do away with me. Shoot me now. I don't care."

Today there was neither strength nor joy in Ley as he languished in the 15th Corps prison camp in the Reich. His weight was down, his jaws sagged, and he was cold sober. But he was still a Nazi, he said.

TO REMAIN LOYAL
"I myself still always remain loyal to Hitler and the Nazi party program," he told his interrogators. "You can't kill off 80,000,000 Germans. We Nazis will continue. You don't even know the most of them are."

He pointed through a window to Austrian flags flying in Salzburg in the Reich and satellite countries. "You can't kill off 80,000,000 Germans. We Nazis will continue. You don't even know the most of them are."

Doctors, Scientists May Stand Trial

From CP, AP and BUP Dispatches
LONDON, May 18.—A blanket drive against Nazi war criminals, that may bring hundreds of leading physicians, surgeons and scientists to trial, is being launched by the thousands of slave laborers and SS troops, as "mass murderers and torturers" as far as they are concerned, following charges that thousands of slave laborers and political prisoners in Germany were killed in "human guinea pig" experiments.

The United Nations War Crimes Commission disclosed today that evidence uncovered since the occupation of Germany shows that thousands of prisoners were the victims of ruthless human vivisection and experimental injections, carried out with cold-blooded scientific detachment, and with no regard to the sufferings of the victims or of their deaths, which at some camps rose to over 50 per day.

The vivisections and experimental injections were carried out on a wholesale basis, in order to build up "a race of German supermen," it was stated by investigators.

Two men who planned and directed these inhuman experiments are named: Dr. Josef Mengele, a medical officer for the medical administration, and Heinrich Himmler, minister of the interior.

They are already under indictment as war criminals.

INVESTIGATORS BUSY
Inquiries have been carried on by the commission since the Nazi surrender, and groups of investigators are now leaving for the continent on the invitation of General Dwight D. Eisenhower, to investigate charges against the medical personnel of Germany.

Two groups of investigators, one Czechoslovak and the other Polish, left London today to probe the happenings to their own nations in the various prison camps. It was announced that Czechoslovak and Polish investigators will be joined by British and American investigators.

Early conquest of Naha was misleading. Has not Germany's capitulation demonstrated this fact to us?

They said that American troops had driven into the "immediate outskirts" of Shuri, central anchor of the Japanese hold on Okinawa, and was as well into Naha, and were attempting to infiltrate into our position.

CRACK RESISTANCE
Front reports said Marines of the Sixth Division were cracking fanatic Japanese resistance deep inside the rubble of Naha.

Early conquest of Naha was expected despite savage opposition. An apparent Japanese plan to turn the capital into a Japanese Caesars that would hold out for months seemed doomed.

MANILA, May 18.—(UPI)—American troops on Mindanao today closed in on Valencia and its important twin-airport after a surge of six miles along the Sava highway.

A communiqué which gave the 21st Division's position as of Wednesday put the leading elements in the outskirts of Valencia and only two miles from the airfield. The 48th was slacked ahead six miles Wednesday and five miles the day before, and there were no indications their advance had slowed.

Empire Bonds Said Weakened

BELFAST, May 18.—(Reuters)—Nobody has done so much to divide Eire and Great Britain as Premier De Valera of Eire, John M. Andrews, former prime minister of Northern Ireland, said here yesterday.

Addressing County Down Orange Lodge, Mr. Andrews declared: "I venture to think the time may not be very far distant when Great Britain will require to pay to Eire of Valera. Eire must consent to the Empire as a legal benefit to the Empire and receive all the privileges and responsibilities of that position as all other Dominions do, or else get out and give the lovely furrow for better or for worse."

An article in the Japanese newspaper Mainichi reiterated earlier Japanese warnings that the fate of Japan itself and the existence of the Japanese people hinge on the outcome of the fight on Okinawa.

Nazi Doctors May Be Tried For Experiments

had reported the circumstances surrounding some Nazi institutions to the supreme commander. Teams from six other allied countries will follow the first two to Germany. They will represent Yugoslavia, Greece, France, Belgium, Holland and Norway.

RUTHLESS EXPERIMENTS
Dr. B. Beer, leader of the Czechoslovak team of the United Nations War Crimes Commission, said today that many of his countrymen were among the victims of Nazi scientific experiments, which were carried out with cold-blooded ruthlessness.

According to the investigators the death toll among those experimented upon ran into the thousands. From 1939 to 1942, both years inclusive, the death rate at one camp alone averaged 50 a day, solely as the result of injections given in medical experiments.

The experiments were carried out in efforts to gain information concerning tuberculosis and other diseases. According to the investigators they were directed through a National Research Centre set up by Dr. Bernhard Rust, minister for science and education in collaboration with Heinrich Himmler as Minister of the Interior.

Dr. Rust and Himmler are already under indictment as war criminals, together with Dr. Anstle, chief physician of the notorious prison camp of Buchenwald, where many of the experiments were made and where the death toll was unusually heavy.

NO CONSIDERATIONS
Evidence taken by the investigators shows that men, women and children were used with utter disregard for the consequences.

Perfectly healthy human beings were injected with diseases of all kinds during the experiments and were then used by the German scientists as "human guinea pigs" on which to try out their various experiments. Although the death toll ran into thousands, the experiments were proceeded with almost to the time the Allied liberators knocked at the prison gates.

and he who had followed orders from Hitler.

"All those who worked, whether Germans or foreigners, were, he said, 'Those who didn't work were hanged. They all worked voluntarily.'"

Neither would Ley admit that he had instigated the German trade labor unions. "I merely took them over," was his explanation. "Their organization, as there were, in fact some of their treasures are larger now than when I took over."

Ley admitted his support of the Nazi policy of persecuting Jews, except for "killing them outright." He added "as such, Jews added to the victory of Cologne."

He last saw Hitler alive on April 23, 1945, he said. The Berlin Chancellor, to congratulate the Fuehrer on his birthday, he said.

"I asked him how the situation was, and he replied that it was serious, but he thought he could handle it. It was in good health then," said Ley.

The first he heard of Hitler's death was when he heard it on the German radio.

Ley claimed that after the unconditional surrender of Germany he was taken to the American lines and he and his wife and children, he found his wife and children in the home of a German family. He did not know where the children had been taken.

Ley said that he had walked all the way back to Austria where he was held in custody. He was released in 1948 after a year in a 1948 Airborne Division on Wednesday afternoon.

Today he was clean-shaven and neatly admitted his identity. He admitted having been captured by the British and he said he would not mind being held.

"I always be a Nazi and remain loyal to Adolf Hitler and the Nazi party," he said.

Veto Question Becomes Issue Security Meet

There will be a long argument on this point unless the big five head it off by bringing up an amendment weakening or abolishing this veto right.

Canada has offered an amendment on this point and will make a submission in committee dealing with the principle of the veto right but admitting that it might be exercised in certain cases.

The Canadian attitude is believed to be that while the veto right is bad in principle, it is not of vital importance in this instance because if one of the big five became an aggressor, the world organization would be doomed in any event.

The whole immediate success of the organization depends upon the extent to which the major powers stand by their general pledge in the charter to resort only to peaceful measures in settlement of international disputes.

GREATER SOVIET ACTION IN FAR EAST IS SEEN
BY JOHN KIMCHE
LONDON, May 18.—(Reuters)—The Peace offer, said to have been made by Japanese industrialists to Britain and the United States through Soviet diplomatic channels, was unofficially reported by the Soviet government, which reflects the view of the present Japanese government, as seven of 10 members are closely connected with big business.

Now that this reported peace approach has been declined, the Japanese are able to see if the Soviet government can assist it in self against the military and Fascist forces.

NO GUARANTEE
The Soviet government, in mandating the Japanese armies in China are Manchuria.

The Soviet government reported from San Francisco, that in the view of the Soviet government, the Japanese offer is no guarantee against further aggression against the Soviet Union.

One form which would be considered diplomatically, would be to consider the Japanese offer as a guarantee against further aggression against the Soviet Union.

832 Men Killed

U.S. Aircraft Carrier Becomes Death Trap After Direct Hit

By ALVIN S. MCCOY

SOMEWHERE IN THE PACIFIC (Delayed)—Japanese bombs blown off the flight deck, the USS Franklin, March 19, off the southern coast of Japan, causing one of the most appalling losses of lives in American naval history when the carrier's own bombs and 100 octane gasoline blasted the ship for hours.

(In New York City, Leslie E. Gehres of Coronado, Calif., skipper of the carrier, said the casualties included 832 men killed and missing, and 270 wounded. The Navy said that the repair job is being done at the Brooklyn, N.Y., Navy Yard.)

Scenes of indescribable horror were seen on the flight deck, a ship almost as long as three city blocks. Men were blown off the flight deck into the sea, burned to a crisp in a searing, white-hot flash of flame that swept the hangar deck, or trapped in compartments below and suffocated by smoke. Scores of men were killed.

I was a dazed survivor of the holocaust because I was below decks at breakfast at the time in an area that was uninjured.

The rescue of the crippled carrier, towed flaming and smoking from the very shores of Japan, and the saving of more than 800 men, faded out of the sea by protesting cruisers and destroyers will be an epic of naval warfare.

The carrier was all but abandoned when the "abandon ship" order never was given. The air group and about 1,500 of the crew were sent to the USS Santa Fe, a light cruiser, which came alongside or were picked out of the sea. A skeleton crew of some 600 remained aboard to try to save the ship. It lasted nearly 20 degrees. The Franklin's plane, three anti-aircraft safety on other carriers.

Continue Probe Of Halifax Riots

HALIFAX, May 18.—(CP)—Assistant Commissioner A. N. Eames of the RCMP continued as witness today in the judicial investigation of the Halifax V-E Day rioting. He occupied the stand for most of yesterday's session and was twice cross-examined by Hugh Sollicitor Carl P. Bethune and Hugh O'Donnell, department of national defence counsel.

It was indicated that Mr. Eames would be followed to the witness stand by other members of the RCMP.

All classes of people, both service personnel and civilians, were drinking at four p.m. on V-E Day. Commissioner Eames said in reply to questioning by Mr. Bethune.

Asked if he had heard any rumors of subversive activities, the commissioner replied that the war was still on and he would not answer the question.

Mr. Justice Kellock asked the witness if he had heard that service personnel stationed in Halifax had been disgraced. He replied in the negative for the navy, army and air force, but said merchant seamen, mostly of foreign origin, had been disgraced.

once again becoming a Social Credit candidate for the federal house of commons. He replied in the negative for the navy, army and air force, but said merchant seamen, mostly of foreign origin, had been disgraced.

He said that his nomination papers had already been signed and forwarded to my official agent for the purpose of the election. He had known that other plans were being contemplated it is quite possible that I might have seen it as my duty to continue in service overseas.

CIRCUMSTANCES NOT CLEAR "The circumstances surrounding the situation are not fully known to me at the moment. When I first heard that there was a possibility that Mr. Long might present himself as a Social Credit candidate in Peace River I immediately wrote him by air mail asking information regarding this rumor and requesting an answer by the same date. To this day no answer has reached me."

Capt. Pelletier said he decided to ask for leave from military service "After receiving numerous letters from Social Crediters in the Peace River country asking me to come back and run as a candidate in the June 11 election. I immediately applied for leave and the other prospective candidates was flown back to Canada."

The Independent Social Credit candidate said he is confident of being elected.

"I am not aware of the sentiments of the many troops from Peace River whom I met during the course of my service overseas. I feel certain that I have their complete support," he said. "Many of them, without being asked, told me that they had written to relatives in Peace River, asking them to support me as their choice."

"I realize that campaigning simply on the strength of being a soldier is insufficient because we have to show to the people that we are men, not just soldiers."

Asked how he intended to carry out his campaign, Capt. Pelletier said, "due to the absence of time left at my disposal, and this was beyond my control, I propose to tour the area, newspaper and public publicity media to carry on my campaign."

"I am not worried about this because I know full well that the people of the Peace River district realize that only duty kept me away. After I have been elected I propose to visit the whole of my constituency as I have done many times in the past."

Capt. Pelletier arrived in Edmonton Thursday noon after flying more than 5,000 miles from north-west Europe to take part in the Dominion election.

Social Credit member for the Peace River riding between 1935 and 1940, he enlisted in the army in October, 1939, and has been serving overseas with the Air Liaison Group of the 1st Canadian Army for three and one-half years.

"At the time of my election I was a member of the House of Commons and made a statement on the floor that if we were willing to send others overseas we should be willing to send ourselves. I offered my services and was accepted and have been in the army ever since," Capt. Pelletier recalled.

SECOND IN 1940 He was a Social Credit candidate in the 1940 election and ran a close second to the Liberal candidate, H. S. Hinson, who was elected.

"During the 1940 election I was stationed at Military District No. 13 headquarters in Calgary and took only a minimum of leave for campaigning because I felt my duty lay more in military service than in politics."

Capt. Pelletier returned to Canada with nine other candidates for election in 1945, aboard the HAF Lancaster transport. He described the crossing as "uneventful" until they reached the coast of America when they ran into bad weather and were forced down in Maine for 26 hours. He flew across Canada from Montreal, arriving in NAR for Peace River.

will govern them," Mr. King replied. "Previously, the prime minister said: 'I would like to say how happy I am to be in Edmonton again and to meet so many old friends. Edmonton brings happy memories of when I was here with the King and Queen. How beautiful your city looked on that occasion. I was also here once since the war. That was in 1941.'

Mr. King said he was well satisfied with the progress being made at the world security conference in San Francisco, where he had headed Canada's delegation in the opening days of the conference.

"I am satisfied that a good beginning has been made at San Francisco," he said.

"It has been reported," one of his interviewers said, "that a member of the United States Congress has suggested that Canada is not pulling her full weight in the Pacific war."

New Defence Medal To Go To Canadians

new war and hundreds of Canadian airmen will put up the case for the medal.

The medals are the Atlantic Star, the Europe Star, the Pacific Star, the Burma Star, and the Defence Medal. The ribbons for all these new awards, which were designed personally by the king, will be available at once. But the medals won't be struck immediately.

Canadian military headquarters said it was their understanding that all the new awards applied to the Dominions as well as British troops. Time as prisoner of war would be counted towards the qualifying period for the 1939-1945 Star but not towards the period of six months of military or air service.

—Operational service which must be completed before the grant of one of the new stars may be authorized.

NO NEW REQUIREMENTS In the case of persons in operational service on V-E Day the Italy and France and Germany stars will be granted without service requirements and there is a similar waiting of the time qualification in the Atlantic and air crew Europe stars.

Mr. Churchill said the defence medal "is intended to recognize the service here of forces from the Dominion, who stood by in time of grievous need and will also be an award subject to three years' qualification to those citizens of this country who during the war, for greater service, were in the forces—the home guard, the national fire service, the police and civil defence."

"These medals touch about 7,000,000 people and recognizes the struggle against the enemy's air and bomb attack."

A white paper on the campaign stars said arrangements for the awards "have been generally agreed in discussion with the Dominion governments, though certain questions of detail remain to be settled."

The defence medal ribbon has green edges and a flame-colored center, "symbolizing eternal life on our green and pleasant land," with two black stripes representing the blackberry, Welsh-wild rose and the House of Commons.

PACIFIC STAR The Pacific Star—for operational service in the Pacific from Dec. 8, 1941—is dark blue with red edges, a central yellow stripe and two other narrow stripes, one dark blue and the other light blue. The green and white stripes represent the beaches, the dark blue for naval forces and the light blue for air forces.

The Burma Star—for operational service in the Burma campaign—is a dark blue ribbon with a central red stripe and two orange stripes. The red stripe stands for the Commonwealth forces, the orange for the Indian forces.

Recipients will receive only one of these awards but a clasp will be awarded showing the other qualifications.

The Atlantic Star—primarily for men on convoys and their escorts and anti-submarine warfare—is blue, white and seagreen ribbon, shaded and unshaded. The white stripe is for the convoys, the seagreen for the escorts.

The Europe Star—for operational service in the European campaign—is a dark blue ribbon with a central red stripe and two orange stripes. The red stripe stands for the Commonwealth forces, the orange for the Indian forces.

CP.—Defence Minister McLaughlin used in an address last night that Canadian inventive genius must be used in providing equipment which will exterminate Japan to the extent that they no longer will be a menace in the future. It's a cold blooded business said McLaughlin of the Far East campaign.

There was no intention of pitting young Canadian against Japanese in the jungle equipped like the enemy "with a bag of rice on their shoulders". They must have proper equipment. "I don't think it will take long to get the Japanese," he said.

An overwhelming force is closing down on the islands of Japan. "We do not need a large force of Canadians to help complete that job."

Museum of Arts Will Meet Tuesday

The last open meeting of the Edmonton Museum of Arts in the Civic Block will be held in the rooms on Tuesday at 8:30 p.m. before its removal from the present quarters to the new location in the New Market building. While the museum began in the Public Library, it for more than 17 years been housed in the Civic Block. The new location offers more opportunities to serve the public as it is on the ground floor and close to the street. The plans in keeping with all city galleries will likely be opened on Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. The chief item on the program on Tuesday evening will be an address on the history of the Art Museum here by May F. H. Norton, who has been in close touch with the institution from its inception. After the address the series offered by the Hudson's Bay Company for pictures of outstanding interest in the history of Edmonton will be presented. During the evening the pictures will be displayed on the walls of the gallery and the pictures for this year of the Alberta Society of Artists will be shown. The will be served.

A position survey in the southern section of London must be familiar with 6106 streets.

Canada Under Dictatorship Speaker Says

The Canadian people have had dictators holding their country's guiding reins ever since the war started, according to P. M. Ashby, Social Credit candidate for East Edmonton, in the Dominion general election of June 11.

Mr. Ashby was speaking at a meeting in the Social Credit hall Thursday night to fire the opening gun of his election campaign. He was introduced by the chairman, the Rev. W. W. Williams, as "the future MP for East Edmonton," and spoke before an audience of 150 persons.

The 55-year-old veteran of the First Great War pointed to the national conscription plebiscite as an example of dictatorship. The people had indicated their desire for conscription for the armed service, but, according to the speaker, such conscription was not introduced until much later.

Mr. J. L. E. Shaw, Dominion minister of finance, was cited as another dictator. Mr. Ashby said that if the "dictators" changed their ways, "they would be out" and so they wouldn't change.

"WORKS OF DEVILS"

He said that Liberalism, Conservatism and Socialism could all be summed up as works of the devil, on the basis of their results, "poverty, wretchedness, distress, increased taxation, war."

On the credit side of human society, he added, there were promises of prosperity, no taxes, no debt, and peace as opposed to war.

Referring briefly to his own election platform, he said that if he were elected he would not guarantee property. He would, rather, undertake to work with the people who had elected him, to strive to work prosperity.

The only use to which he believed taxation should be put, was the limiting of surplus purchasing power. The only debt should be the debt of thanks to God—and "God doesn't ask us to pay for that."

SEEKS POWER FOR PEOPLE

Referring to the Social Credit party, he said that social credit was Christianity, a movement 2,000 years old, and a party that seeks power only for the people.

The speaker drew applause when he described dollars as units of nothing, and that a bank with a dollar bill on which is stated an agreement to pay the bearer one dollar—ask for payment of that dollar, and they suggest you go home and have a rest."

He declared that those people who say that cost of the war was "billions and billions of dollars" were wrong. He said billions and billions of natural resources and lives.

Canada now belongs to those boys who had paid the cost of the war, he said; they should have anything they like in Canada.

Chiropractors Hold Annual Gathering

The twenty-eighth annual convention of the Alberta Chiropractic Association was held at the Palliser Hotel in Calgary on Monday and Tuesday of this week. It was the first annual meeting under the provisions of the new Chiropractic Act which was passed during the last session of the Alberta Legislature.

The act now requires that before any person may sit for provincial board examinations to obtain a license to practice he must first be a graduate of a chiropractic college which requires an attendance of four years of eight months each. With the passing of this act the laws governing and controlling the practice of chiropractic are now uniform throughout the province across Canada.

The guest speaker during the banquet on Monday evening was A. V. Bourcier, M.L.A., chairman of the Social Credit Board.

John S. Burton, general secretary and legal counsel for the Canadian Chiropractors' Association, gave a report on the activities of the Dominion Council of Canadian Chiropractors during the last year. Mr. Burton also stated that a modern up-to-date chiropractic college would open in September in Toronto.

The convention was considered the most important of any held during the last 22 years.

The following officers were elected: President, Dr. Hugh Elliott, Calgary; vice-president, Dr. H. H. Elliott, Edmonton; secretary-treasurer, Dr. H. H. Elliott, Edmonton; chairman of the board of chiropractors, Dr. H. F. Messenger, Edmonton; chairman of the board of examiners, Dr. H. F. Russell, Edmonton.

Doukhobors Strip In B.C. Courtroom

NELSON, B.C. May 18.—CPI.—One of nine Doukhobors on trial here on charges of disturbing the peace by stripping off all their clothes in police court yesterday and three other men and two women, partially undressed. The lone woman who refused to wear any clothes was arrested May 9 after she stripped in the city hall and walked into the street wearing only shoes. Her demonstration followed by only a day the stripping by 12 other Doukhobors in front of the provincial jail. The 12 went on the sidewalk, sang and prayed until taken into custody. The group were protesting against an amendment of the members of the religious sect.

Girl 16 Differs From Parents In Education

Young Girl With Advanced Training Conflicts With Her Parents; Mother, Father Should Keep Up to Times

DEAR MISS DIX: I am sixteen years old and am on the verge of running away from home because I cannot get along with my parents. I am a good student and make fine marks at school. My trouble is that my parents are old-fashioned and want me to have a liberal education, and I am in an argument with my mother about everything.

Far instance, my mother is very old-fashioned, and when we discuss politics and I tell her how ignorant she is and that my teachers say things are not like she says they are, she gets so angry that I get a spanking with a strap.

I am so worn out and nervous with all the quarrelling that I don't know what to do. What is your advice?

DISTRESSED SIXTEEN.
ANSWER: Don't think of such a thing as running away from home, for you will find out that unpleasant as things may be there, they will be far worse when you lack the security of having a shelter at night, food to eat, clothes to wear and someone to turn to in the world, is the most pitiful and helpless creature alive if the wolves don't get her, it is nothing short of a miracle.

Boy at home. Study hard and try yourself to be self-sufficient. When you break your heart with a desire to understand your parents, they are doing one of the most beautiful things in the world, because they deliberately are lifting you to a class above their own and they know that it will separate you from them. They are giving you advantages they never had and an education they never received and that is why they resent your leaving them in an argument and bucking to your views with facts and statistics that they do not know.

All parents want to be little tin gods to their children. They want their children to love them, they are inhumanly wise, so it cuts them to the quick when you tell them that they are ignorant and quote to them what the teacher says. When you are older you will find out that though they may lack book learning, they have the knowledge that comes of long experience.

If you look at your parents with this in mind, you will have more patience with them and you will, at least, have enough good nature not to throw their lack of education in their faces. As for the argument that keeps you so nervous, that is easy enough to stop. Just don't be taken two to make an argument and if you will leave the floor to your mother, she soon will talk herself out.

DISLIKES LIVING.
DEAR MISS DIX: At twenty-two I have no incentive for living, although I have a good home, parents who try to keep me contented and a job. My problem is the lack of male companionship. Life is slipping through my fingers and I feel that I will be one of the generation of women who never marry because the war had

These women—"Boy! I'll bet we could learn PLENTY from her!"

Personal Health Service

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.
TONSILS, SINGERS AND SPEAKERS

Two years ago, at the age of 18 and after much trouble, I arrived at a man whose voice I had lost. My tonsils were eliminated by diathermy. No throat trouble and not a cold this past winter. During the process of tonsil removal I missed not a single broadcast (three every day) and I am now singing and speaking from the skill with which he applied this method. When I told him it had been by diathermy the conversation regarding tonsils stopped abruptly. Dr. Brady, who gave me the diathermy treatment, pre-tends to be a general practitioner, but from the skill with which he applied this method it is evident he knows his anatomy and his electro-surgery.

Thank you for the doctor's name. My list of doctors skilled in modern methods was all shot by this method. It is slow work building new lists — reports like yours put me on the trail of a man who would who might otherwise work in peace.

In an article printed recently in the "official organ" of a medical society, Dr. William Brady of the Journal, my advocacy of electro-coagulation (diathermy) in preference to radical surgical treatment of infected tonsils, and tonsillitis (chronic tonsillitis) to tonsillectomy (attempt at total removal) for children under five years of age, was brought forcibly to the attention of the Journal his hundred odd subscribers who might otherwise not have heard what gone on today. Having gratified his childish appetite by calling Dr. William Brady a quack and an ignoramus, I need only to the writer of the squawk make this dreadful proposal.

"It hardly seems credible that any man claiming to be a physician has been so treated at the home-and-bugby days." "Go back! Home, 'Topsy'!" have done my best for longer than a little man in Delaware knows to preserve at least the spirit of the

Produce New Drug To Combat Typhoid
CHICAGO, May 12.—AP.—New drug similar to penicillin in action holds promise of aiding recovery from typhoid, a disease for which there has been no treatment of value, the Journal of the American Medical Association reported yesterday. The drug is streptomycin, a non-toxic substance which, like penicillin, inhibits or destroys bacterial growth and acts on organisms on which penicillin has no effect, including the microbe causing typhoid.

Your Baby And Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

As I read letters from mothers I am struck with a universal attitude. Mothers demand one thing from their babies, for themselves, that he must do things uninterruptedly without help.

do that is to be an adult. There are times when children do not want to do for themselves, even though they can. I see no harm in helping a child occasionally, even if it has the capacity to perform the act for which he is asking help. That little help or attention may be very important at the moment, merely as an illustration of a mother's loving emotions toward him.

My son, J. F. C., is bothering about dressing a child. "My son is able to dress himself and has been doing so for a long time. However, when he gets up from his nap, I have trouble to get him to dress. I know when I wake up on a day when I am never fully awake for a time and know he must wait his turn. I cannot allow him to run around unfettered for half an hour. He insists it when I put him back to bed, and I love him. Am I the only one who has this trouble? Do you think I should dress him?"

No problem of childhood are all healthy, normal children present the same or similar ones. You could put him in a bathrobe and slippers and let him run around until he is ready to put on his clothes. As the weather grows warmer and his underwear condition endangers him in no way you may be more lenient about the time element. In such case you'll put out his clothes and let him to put them on when he is ready to go out and play. That will be an incentive to spur him to dress himself.

But I don't believe it necessary to rigidly hold to the idea that because he can dress himself he must always do so. Children get bored with the ceremony and put it off. They day-dream over the job. The thing to keep in mind is whether it is important that he be dressed. All of us ask for and get occasional help, and we can do some. What treat the child differently?

Our leaflet, "Helping the Slow Child," may be had by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Myrtle Meyer Eldred, care of this newspaper.

LITTLE CURRENT, Ont., May 12.—(CP)—John Bracken, national Progressive Conservative leader, said yesterday he would not now be a member of the party were it not sure it was a vehicle for serving Canada.

Addressing a rural Ontario election audience in this Manitoulin Island town, Mr. Bracken said he had not been a supporter of the Conservative Party when asked to accept party leadership in 1942. However, party members expressed their willingness to become part of a progressive movement. With that assurance he accepted leadership, because the party agreed to give agriculture a fair deal.
